Theme: AWARE
LIGHT SHOWS BY JIM C

Friday September 4
7PM Opening Ceremony
featuring live music with Rock 'n' Roll Therapist Paul McMahon at the outdoor café.

10:20 Total Animal III
Submerged beings plasticized with sensual vibrations are breaking under destructive sounds. These creatures clot together all the way to total annihilation.

8:00 Keep It Clean A greasy, disgusting salesman dies in a clean freak's home. Then he has to figure out what to do with the body.

10:25 Circus Song A troupe of traveling performers reminisce and recreate their lives. From Brazil.

8:15 Poverty, Inc. With Gary Null in person. Examines the influence of corporate globalization, exposes the destructive nature of our modern financial system's predatory policies as U.S. enters Third World status. Q&A

10:50 Rhythms Of The Baul 1000-year-old tradition of music, religion and way of life by wandering, mystical minstrels of Bengal.

10:40 Little Vulvah and her Clitoral Awareness Animated sexual fantasies rouse the imagination of a young woman. From Denmark.

11:15 War On Whistleblowers highlights recent cases where American government employees and contractors took to the media to expose fraud and abuse. In all cases the whistle blowing was to the detriment of their professional and personal lives. Features Edward Snowden & Daniel Ellsberg.

10:50 A Private Matter Reserved young woman returns to her rural hometown accompanied by her outgoing partner in order to spend the weekend with her conservative family. From Australia.

Monday September 7
12PM Substance Abuse Solutions that are saving lives and money, keeping the public safer, and helping those with drug problems.

Saturday September 5
7PM To Prison for Poverty Most people in our jails & prisons do not pose a threat to public safety. They need help. These solutions move us away from obsessive arresting and incarceration.

12:11 Homelessness Addresses safety concerns and opens a window of opportunity for those living out on the street.

7:15 Mortal Dilemma Drama erupts between three unrepentant men at a West Texas roadside café.

12:18 It's All About Breaking The Wall We see a man in a room. He seems tense. Why? Is he waiting for something, that won't come? Is it her? What are the sheets and pencils for?

7:30 Earning The Day Visually imaginative comedy takes an entertaining look at self-criticism, and demonstrates the steps we can take to move out of our own morass to feel we have earned our day.

12:27 Daughter Of An Ocean Remembering the story told by her mother, Suni learns to live her life with freedom, as her mother never did.

8:15 American Road Explores the mystique of the road in American culture with artistic, musical and literary resonances. Q&A

12:45 Karmu, A Place in the Sun Auto mechanic by day and urban shaman by night, Karmu welcomed anyone in need into his home, from drug addicts to Harvard professors. Q&A

10:30 Bees 'N Trees Armed with a chainsaw and harness, an arborist's Zen-like approach rescues beehives from urban trees that are on the chopping block.

2:00 Dancing With Those Showtoonz An animated musical parody. Two couples compete for the grand prize. Q&A

10:45 Peter Yarrow In His Living Room Intimate concert with Peter Yarrow of Peter, Paul & Mary, his daughter Bethany & her partner Rufus. Special appearance by Woodstock's Rock 'n' Roll therapist Paul McMahon. Q&A

2:40 Farewell To Factory Towns When factories left a typical New England mill town, art was brought in as a replacement. Does it work? Q&A

12:15 AM Hide the Sausage Eddie "The Sausage" gets released from prison. He must avoid all the wrong people, stay out of sight, make amends with his daughter, and then leave the country.

4:15 Poop On Poverty Highlights a challenge faced by 2.5 billion people every day—access to cooking fuel. It's also a tribute to human ingenuity—turning animal waste into energy. From India.

Sunday September 6
7:00 Alison & Jeremy is a sensitive portrayal of childhood friends who, like all of us, are seeking unconditional love and acceptance.

4:22 Requiem An existential struggle to liberate ourselves from the grasp of matter. Illustrates love & pain, loneliness & connectedness, stagnation & progress. Claymation.

7:45 Two Landscapes A clash between the landscape the eye perceives and the one that's deeply embedded in the mind. Q&A

4:28 Interface A self-portrait made of assemblages investigates co-existing multiple digital identities.
"The best interface is no interface."

7:50 Freedom A subtle ode to those whose cups runneth over and over and over and over and over and... Q&A

4:32 Anxeyety Individuals from various backgrounds, gender identities, ages, professions, and levels of social anxiety/ disorders are interviewed about eye contact.

8:15 The Life & Times Of Thomas Thumb Jr. Unlike any other man, he has a giant thumb for a head and he'll do whatever it takes to achieve the American Dream.

4:39 The Genesis of a Sculpture The work of art tells his story: of, being an artist, life in the studio, and his destiny.

8:30 Carnival Surreal Sideshow Comical, animated parody featuring strange and bazaar acts. Cannes award winning animator. Q&A

8:50 Yorkville Canada's version of Greenwich Village and Haight-Ashbury, draft dodgers mixed in with musicians, political activists, and curious Canadians as the 1960s counterculture grew.

4:50 I've Just Had A Dream Two girls. Two cultures. Two visions. A dream. The only thing that makes them different is how each one dreams.
